CS (OS) 1860/2014

Summons be issued to the defendants through all modes of service including e-mail in addition, returnable on 22nd July, 2014.

I.A.No.11576/2014 (Stay)

1. Notice for the date fixed.

2. It is the submission of the learned counsel for the plaintiff that the plaintiff is a leading general entertainment and sports broadcaster in India with the necessary downlink permissions from the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting. It has the sole and exclusive right to broadcast the following channels in India, namely, Sony Entertainment Television (SET), SONY SIX, SONY SIX HD, SONY AATH, SONY PIX, SONY PIX HD, AXN, SONY SAB, SONY MIX and SONY MAX. The plaintiff's channels are distributed in India by the MSM Discovery Pvt. Ltd. It is the case of the plaintiff by virtue of a License Agreement between FIFA and MSM Satellite (Singapore) Pte. Ltd. dated 14th January, 2014, which agreement has been assigned to the plaintiff by MSM Singapore with FIFA's approval, the plaintiff has been granted the exclusive Television Rights, Radio Rights, Mobile Transmission Rights and Broadband Internet Transmission Rights in respect of the 2014 FIFA World Cup for the territories of Bangladesh, Bhutan, India, Maldives, Nepal, Pakistan and Srilanka. These rights include the live, delayed, highlights, on demand, and repeat broadcasting of the 2014 FIFA World Cup Matches. The existence and scope of rights granted by FIFA to the plaintiff has been confirmed vide letter dated 16th May, 2014 issued by FIFA in favour of the plaintiff.

3. The plaintiff's case is also that it has an internet and mobile portal known as Sony LIV and has a dedicated digital sports entertainment service (transmitted through internet and mobile) known as LIV Sports. The Plaintiff's Sony LIV services offers to viewers the various general entertainment programmes that are broadcast on the channels of the Plaintiff, online and through mobile with adaptability to all types and formats of mobile devices, including, without limitation, Android, iOS, Windows, RIM etc. (?Access Formats?). The Plaintiff's Sony LIV Services can be accessed through the web portal www.sonyliv.com, and also as an application ?Sony LIV? available for download in the Access Formats. The LIV Sports services are also available to viewers from the website www.livsports.in and can also be downloaded as an application ?LIV Sports? on the Android and iTunes platforms.

4. He also submits that the plaintiff has also made substantial investments in securing the exclusive Mobile Transmission and Internet Broadband Transmission Rights for the 2014 FIFA World Cup. According to him since international football matches are organized and played only for a few days in the year, the potential opportunities to exploit the exclusive Mobile Transmission and Internet Broadband Transmission Rights associated with a football match are primarily available only during the live broadcast of such matches.

5. Football, being one of the most popular sports in India, the potential opportunities available to the Plaintiff to recover its huge investments in acquisition of the exclusive Mobile Transmission and Internet Broadband Transmission Rights for the 2014 FIFA World Cup is at its highest during the live broadcast of the matches.

6. It is the case that given the significant investments made by the Plaintiff in acquiring the exclusive Mobile Transmission and Internet Broadband Transmission Rights, it is imperative for the Plaintiff to ensure that its exclusive and statutory rights are not infringed by websites which have not made any investments in acquisition of such rights and which is illegally broadcast, rebroadcast, retransmit, host, stream, exhibit, make available for viewing and download, provide access to and communicate to the public, the broadcast of the 2014 FIFA World Cup Matches. It is also his submission that in terms of Section 37 of the Copyright Act, 1957, the plaintiff is the sole and exclusive owner of the Broadcast, re-productions rights in relation to the broadcast of the plaintiff's channels which includes 2014 FIFA World Cup matches.

7. He would state that the various websites are indulging in hosting, streaming, providing access to, etc. of infringing the exclusive rights and broadcast and re-production rights of the plaintiff. According to him, the acts of infringement is not only causing the plaintiff loss of substantial revenues but will also take away the legitimate revenue to the Government through service tax etc which are payable on the subscription fee payable by the named and unnamed defendants if they conduct their business illegitimately.

8. Learned counsel for the plaintiff also submits that many of the websites are anonymous in nature and it is virtually impossible to locate the owners of such websites or contact details of such owners. It is further submitted that many of these Rogue Websites also hide behind domain privacy services offered by various domain name Registrars. According to him, the cause of action arises against the defendants as they are likely to host, stream, broadcast, retransmit, exhibit, make available for viewing and download, provide access to and communicate to the public display, upload, modify, publish, update and / or share the broadcast of the 2014 FIFA World Cup matches and contents related thereto in the sub-continent more particularly in India in relation to the 2014 FIFA World Cup without obtaining permission from the plaintiff.

9. Having heard and considered the submissions of the learned counsel for the plaintiff, I am of the view that the plaintiff having the exclusive right to provide live, delayed and repeat broadcast of 2014 FIFA World Cup Matches on its aforementioned channels and being the official internet and mobile broadcaster of the matches, any activity of the defendants in hosting, streaming, providing access to the 2014 FIFA World Cup Matches would amount to an act of piracy.

Considering the period of the rights aforementioned in favour of the plaintiff to broadcast through TV channels, internet and mobile services, is for a limited period, and the plaintiff having established a prima facie case and also seeking a John Doe order, I am of the view that the plaintiff is entitled to the following ad-interim ex-parte order:-

(a) The defendants nos. 1 to 39 and 59 to 70 websites, their partners, proprietors, officers, servants, employees, and all others in capacity of principal or agent acting for and on their behalf, or anyone claiming through, by or under it, and the websites listed below, or any other website identified by the Plaintiff are restrained, from in any manner hosting, streaming, broadcasting, rebroadcasting, retransmitting, exhibiting, making available for viewing and downloading, providing access to and / or communicating to the public, displaying, uploading, modifying, publishing, updating and/or sharing (including to its subscribers and users), through the internet, in any manner whatsoever, the Plaintiff's broadcast, as broadcasted / contained in its Channels SONY SIX, SONY SIX HD, SONY PIX, and SONY PIX HD in relation to the 2014 FIFA World Cup matches and content related thereto, so as to infringe the Plaintiff's broadcast reproduction rights.

(b) The defendant Nos. 1 to 39 and 59 to 70 websites, their partners, proprietors, officers, servants, employees, and all others in capacity of principal or agent acting for and on their behalf, or anyone claiming through, by or under it, and other websites as listed below, or any other website identified by the Plaintiff are restrained, from in any manner hosting, streaming, broadcasting, rebroadcasting, retransmitting, exhibiting, making available for viewing and downloading, providing access to and / or communicating to the public, displaying, uploading, modifying, publishing, updating and/or sharing (including to its subscribers and users), through the internet in any manner whatsoever, the broadcast of the 2014 FIFA World Cup Matches and the content related thereto, amounting to unfair competition and commercial misappropriation of the Plaintiff's rights.

(c) The defendant Nos. 40 to 55, their directors, partners, proprietors, officers, servants, employees, and all others in capacity of principal or agent acting for and on their behalf, or anyone claiming through, by or under it, to ensure and secure compliance of this order.

(d) The defendant Nos. 56 and 57, their directors, partners, proprietors, officers, servants, employees, and all others in capacity of principal or agent acting for and on their behalf, or anyone claiming through, by or under it, to ensure and secure compliance of this order by calling upon the various internet service providers registered under it to block access to the various websites identified by the Plaintiff in the instant suit or such other websites that may subsequently be notified by the

Plaintiff to be infringing of its exclusive rights.List of Websites Monitored by Markscan on behalf of MSM
