P.C

After this Notice of motion was heard for sometime, learned counsel for the defendants states that the defendants had approached the plaintiffs in the year 2016 to utilize/play the musical works, sound recordings of which the plaintiff possesses the copyrights and would again approach the plaintiffs for the event to be held on 31.12.2017. Statement is accepted.

2. On instructions, learned counsel for the defendants also states that in the event which would be held on 25.12.2017 the sound recordings of which copyrights are claimed by the plaintiffs would not be used. In view of the above statement as made on behalf of the defendants, no further orders are required to be passed on this notice of motion.

3. Notice of motion is accordingly disposed of in above terms.

4. Needless to observe that in the event, the defendants do not approach and secure from the plaintiffs permission/licence for using/playing the sound recording at the event to be held on 31.12.2017, the defendants in that event are restrained from using/playing any of the sound recordings of which copyrights are assigned and possessed by the plaintiffs.
