ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION
NOTICE OF MOTION (L) NO. 1783 OF 2016
IN SUIT (L) NO. 633 OF 2016

Balaji Motion Picture Limited & Anr. ...Plaintiffs
Versus
Bharat Sanchar Nigam Ltd. & 49 Ors. ...Defendants

Mr. Shailesh Mendon, a/w Mr. N. Rodriguse, i/b R. M. Partners, for the Plaintiffs.
Mr. Gauraj Shah, i/b Vishal Gupta, for the Defendant No. 5.

CORAM: G.S. PATEL, J
DATED: 16th June 2016

PC:-

1. This is an urgent application moved against a number of Defendants. Some are Internet Service Providers ('intermediaries' within the meaning of Information & Technology Act, 2000); others are cable operators; and some are unknown persons, those known as 'John Doe' or 'Ashok Kumar' defendants. The Suit is a hybrid action. It combines principles under Order 1 Rule 8 and Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 with the well-known John Doe or Ashok Kumar principle. This has been invoked frequently. I myself have passed orders in similar matters.

2. The present Suit is in respect of a forthcoming film entitled “UDTA PUNJAB”. The film is scheduled for release on 17th June 2016.

3. The injunction sought does not relate to any internal dispute regarding the production of the film. All that the Plaintiffs seek to do is to restrain potential damage and loss on account of pirated and illicit copies being made available online. The action is, therefore, a quia timet action. It is by no means the first of its kind.<sup>1</sup>

4. The plaint has a very long list of different websites, all of which supposedly offer or host, or, the Plaintiffs apprehend, will offer or host links to illicit downloads of this film. The Plaintiffs ask inter alia that all these websites be blocked by the Defendants.

5. Mr. Shah appears for Defendant No. 5, Hathway Cable & Datacom Limited, a prominent internet service provider in Mumbai and elsewhere. Mr. Shah submits, and I think quite rightly, that it is unreasonable to expect any of the intermediaries or cable operators Defendants to block entire websites. It is one thing to ask that links

1 Red Chillies Entertainments Private Limited v Hathway Cable & Datacom Limited & Ors., in Notice of Motion (L) No. 2366 of 2014 in Suit (L) No. 994 of 2014, dated 14th October 2014; TAI Television Limited v Rajan Mandan, 2003 FSR 22; Viacom18 Motion Pictures v. Sonali Cable Vision Private Limited & Ors, order dated 15th June 2012; & Eros International Media Limited & Anr. v. Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited, Notice of Motion (L) No. 1052 of 2016 in Suit (L) No. 303 of 2016, dated 30th March 2016; Yash Raj Films Pvt Ltd v Bharat Sanchar Nigam Ltd, Notice of Motion (L) No. 1200 of 2016 in Suit (L) No. 360 of 2016, order dated 13th April 2016; Krian Picture Limited v. Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited & Others, Notice of Motion (L) No. 1333 of 2016 in Suit (L) No. 410 of 2016, order dated 21st April 2016.

to a specific download of the film in question be taken down or rendered inaccessible. But to ask, as the Plaintiffs do, that an entire website be rendered is in itself unreasonable. The suggestion, implicit in the plaint, that all these 800 websites have only illicit content and that they have no permissible or legitimate content, is unwarranted and without disclosed basis.

6. There is much substance to what Mr. Shah says. Placed in the overbroad manner one finds in the Plaint, the reliefs sought, if granted, would operate as pre-censorship or gag orders. There are other considerations too, and I am by no means convinced that a court should order a wholesale blocking of access to various websites or that this is even technically feasible.

7. Mr. Shah also points out that it is unclear from the URL listing in the plaint whether any of these relate to secure websites, i.e., to online services that are subscription-based or allow access against payment. If so, the Defendants are not permitted in law to block access to such subscribed or fee-based sites. These secure sites are those accessible via a secured connection, one prefixed with https://. This submission is also well-founded. The orders of restraint sought cannot, therefore, cover any fee-based websites irrespective of whether they are listed in the plaint or not. I must proceed on the footing that subscription and fee-based websites are already regulated as to their contents. They have an built-in liability. There is no possibility of these websites hosting illicit content and being permitted to charge access fees. I will leave it open to the Plaintiffs to point out specific instances of violation or default by any fee-based secure website and to move again in respect of those.

8. Thus, while I am prepared to grant the Plaintiff some relief, this must be specific and in relation to the film in question. I will not grant such an overbroad relief of the kind sought in one of the prayers to this Notice of Motion. Previous orders have not made this distinction, and that was a mistake. I must express my thanks to Mr. Shah for pointing this out.

9. A prima facie case has been made out by the Plaintiffs for grant of relief in terms that follow. Prayers a(i) and a(ii) do not seem to link any websites in particular. They are reasonably worded and require restraint against illicit downloads wherever these are to be found. There should be no impediment to the grant of these prayers.

10. Prayer a(iii), however, contains a reference to the websites, domain name and URLs listed in the Plaint and asks that all of them be blocked. For the reasons I mentioned earlier, I am unprepared to grant that relief in this form. The Defendants can be restrained from permitting access to links to illicit downloads of the film in question. Prayer (a)(iii) in the form in which it is placed is rejected.

11. There will, therefore, be an ad-interim injunction in terms of prayer clauses a(i), a(ii), a(iv) and a(v), which read as follows:

“(a) That pending the final hearing and disposal of the Suit, this Hon’ble Court, be pleased to restrain

(i) that the Defendants by themselves, their servants, agents, licensees, franchisees, partners, proprietors and/or otherwise

howsoever be restrained by an order of mandatory injunction of this Hon'ble Court from exhibiting/ disseminating / communicating to the public via the internet, telecasting/ broadcasting/ distributing/ reproducing or otherwise making available to the public via cable network;

- (ii) that the Defendants by themselves, their servants, agents, licensees, franchisees, partners, proprietors and/ or otherwise howsoever be restrained by an order of mandatory injunction of this Hon'ble Court from (i) making a copy of the film and said work, including a photograph of any image forming part thereof, (ii) to selling or giving on hire, or offering for sale or hire, any copy of the said film and said work, regardless of whether such copy has been sold or given on hire on earlier occasions, and (iii) communicating the said film and said work to the public in any manner whatsoever including by way of but not limited to exhibiting/ disseminating/ communicating to the public via the internet, telecasting/ broadcasting/ distributing/ reproducing or otherwise making available to the public via the internet or any other means for the said Film and said Work;
- (iv) grant an order of temporary injunction restraining the Defendants (cable TV operators) from broadcasting, contents that relate to the said Film and said Work, in any manner, thereby restraining the unauthorized copying, transmission, communication or make available or display or release or show or exhibit or play and/or in any manner communicate in and/or through the cable TV services provided by them, immediately upon receipt of details of such cable operators in writing from the Plaintiff or its authorized representatives;

- (v) Pass an order directing the concerned police station(s) to render necessary assistance to the Plaintiff company in restraining the Defendants from violating/infringing the said Film and said Work.”

12. In addition, there will also be an injunction restraining the Defendants from permitting access to all pages of any websites, including those listed in the Petition, and which contain or are said to contain links to illicit downloads of the film in question.

13. It is stated on behalf of the Plaintiffs that in advance of the film's release tomorrow, 17th June 2016, the Plaintiff has found that illicit pirated copies of the film apparently have already been available on some sites. A list of these is tendered. This list is taken on record and marked “X” for identification. The list given to me today contains not just the URL or domain name of the websites but the URL of the actual download links. There is no doubt in my mind that these links must all be removed or rendered inaccessible. Therefore, in addition to the foregoing order, there will also be an order in favour of the Plaintiff directing the Defendants and all other person to immediately remove these links, a list of which is appended to this order and all other links to any unauthorised downloads of this film. I am also informed that portions of the film were in fact being made available on YouTube. This material has now been removed.

14. Where necessary, the local Police Authorities are directed to render all possible assistance to the Plaintiff in the enforcement of this order.

15. In addition, the Plaintiff is at liberty to publicize in all available media an authenticated copy or the substance of this order. This may also be prominently displayed in on-line advertising, television, cinemas, hoardings and in newspapers.

16. Should the Plaintiff find any actual instance of piracy or infringement, including on a secure website, the Plaintiff will be at liberty to apply without notice.

17. Mr. Shah on behalf of the 5th Defendant expresses an apprehension that the 5th Defendant and others like it might be held responsible, if through inadvertence internet service providers allow access to a website that contains an illicit download link. Mr. Shah is correct in this. The internet service providers cannot be expected to police the Internet or to monitor the contents of every single website. They only provide connectivity. Internet service providers, like all intermediaries, have sufficient statutory protection. I have no doubt that if and when the Plaintiffs draw attention to any of these intermediaries or cable operators to any site that contain illicit material, those intermediaries and cable operators will undoubtedly cooperate as they are required to do under the statute.

18. The Plaintiff shall complete service within a period of two weeks from today.

19. Affidavits in Reply, if any, to be filed and served on or before 18th July 2016. Affidavits in Rejoinder, if any, to be filed and served on or before 22nd July 2016.

20. List the Notice of Motion thereafter in the normal course for hearing and final disposal.

21. The Police Authorities including the Cyber Crime Cell, Mumbai are directed to assist the Plaintiffs and their Advocates in ensuring compliance of this order.
