24. The Plaintiff - Bhaktivedanta Book Trust is a trust established by His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada, 'Srila Prabhupada' (hereinafter, 'Author'). The Author was a renowned scholar, philosopher, cultural ambassador, prolific author, religious leader, spiritual teacher, a social critic and is revered by his devotees as a Guru. He is also credited with the establishment of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness (ISKCON).

25. The Author spread the message from various Hindu scriptures including from the Shri Bhagavad Gita, in India and in several foreign countries. Publications written by the Author include various lectures and published books which are read by devotees and those who are interested in his teachings, in a large number of languages including English, Hindi, Tamil, Telugu, Assamese and other regional languages, as also foreign languages such as French, German and Russian etc., It is averred that some of the Author's works have simplified the religious books and scriptures and have made it easy for the common man to understand. The copyright in all the works which have been based on the Authors teachings, writings, lectures and preaching vests with the Plaintiff -Trust.

26. The Author attained Mahasamadhi in 1977 and, accordingly, the Plaintiff -Trust claims the copyrights in all the works written by the said Author still subsists with it. A complete list of works in which copyright is claimed is attached as Annexure - A to this order.

27. The Plaintiff Trust also has numerous copyright registrations granted by the Copyright Office, for its works. The list of copyright registrations of the Plaintiff is attached as Annexure - B to this order.

28. The Plaintiff-Trust has during the lifetime of the Author and after the Mahasamadhi of the Author, spread the said writings and teachings in various forms including printed books, audio books and electronic versions. The Plaintiff-Trust has made the said works available to the general public through its various religious establishments and through online platforms. These works being original copyrighted works, the Plaintiff-Trust earns the royalty from the sale and commercial exploitation of the said works.

29. In the present case, the grievance of the Plaintiff – Trust is that Defendant Nos. 1 to 4 are websites which are making available a large number of the Plaintiff's copyrighted works almost in a verbatim manner on their online platforms. The said websites are as under:

i) https://bhagavatam.in/#gsc.tab=O Emai ID: info@bhagavatam.in
ii) http ://fr33books.xyz/#
iii) https://shrbooks.online
iv) http;//www.kisnabooks.pro

30. Defendant Nos. 5 to 9 are mobile applications which are making available the Plaintiff's copyrighted works to the public without the consent and permission of the Plaintiff-Trust. The said apps are as under:

i) Shrimad Bhagwatam Reasola
ii) Bhagavad Gita Audio Offline English
iii) Bhagavad Gita Audio Offline Hindi
iv) My BVL One World One Family Spiritual Society, Inc.
v) Bhagavad Gita in Hindi Audio

31. The Defendant Nos. 10 to 14 are Instagram handles where the copyrighted works are being uploaded and communicated to the public through various links.

32. Defendant No.15 - Google LLC, is a search engine which is making available the infringing mobile applications on its Google play store. Defendant No.16 – Meta Platforms Inc., is a social media platform which runs the Instagram platforms where the infringing Instagram handles are making available the infringing copies of the copyrighted works.

33. Defendant No.17 - Godday.com is the Domain Name Registrar (DNR), of Defendant No.1 domain name i.e. Bhagawatam.in. The Defendant Nos.18 to 26 are ISPs. Defendant Nos.27 and 28 are DoT and MeitY.

34. Mr. Saikrishna Rajagopala, ld. Counsel appearing for the Plaintiff submits that the Plaintiff - Trust is engaged in a large number of charitable activities in India and one of the main sources of income for the Trust is the royalties which are earned from the aforementioned copyrighted works. Further, the Plaintiff – Trust also runs a number of spiritual establishments including in India and abroad and thus, ought not to be deprived of the revenues from the sale and distribution of these works to the public.

35. He further submits that none of the Defendant Nos.1 to 14 have any license or right to reproduce, communicate and disseminate the copyrighted works of the Author as the Plaintiff is the owner of the copyrights in the said works. He submits that the reproduction by the said Defendants being completely brazen and clear, deserves to be injuncted.

36. The deception is not merely by making the books available, but by actually using the Plaintiff's name as the source of the book. ld. Counsel shows some of the infringing copies of the Copyrighted works which bear the name of the Plaintiff itself. The same are as under:

37. The Court has perused the record and has also seen the extracts from the infringing websites, mobile applications, Instagram handles, etc. Some of the platforms in fact reveal that there is a large-scale infringement that has been carried out in the reproduction of a substantial number of copyrighted works of the Plaintiff - Trust. It is noticed that piracy has been done in several of the languages in which the Plaintiff's works are published.

38. Legal notices have also been issued on behalf of the Plaintiff. Defendant No.1. has in fact reverted and replied to one such legal notice. The said reply is as under:

Dear sir/mam,

We apologize for any infringement that may have occurred as a result of our actions. Upon receiving your legal notice, we immediately removed the offending material from the website.

We understand the importance of respecting intellectual property rights, and we take these matters seriously. It was made on requests of devotees for preaching purposes which has been removed. We have taken steps to ensure that this does not happen again in the future and deleted all data from the site.

Please accept our sincerest humble obeisance. We appreciate your understanding in this matter. Hare Krishna

Sincerely,

39. In the present case, since the Author himself set up the Plaintiff Trust and handed over the copyrights to be administered by the trust, the said copyrighted works cannot be reproduced without authorization, licence or the permission of the Plaintiff-Trust.

protected by the Hon'ble Bombay High Court in Bhaktivedanta Book Trust vs. Thomson Press (India) Ltd. and Ors. MANU/MH/0194/2017.

41. There can be no doubt that the Shrimad Bhagavad Gita is one of the most revered ancient scriptures in the world. The Bhagavad Gita along with the other scriptures like Bhagavatam which are written about by the Author are all `public domain' works. There can be no copyright claimed in the Scriptures. However, any adaptations of the said work including providing explanation, summary, meaning, exegesis/interpretation or creating any audio visual works for eg., television series like Ramanand Sagar's Ramayana or B.R. Chopra's Mahabharata; dramatic works created by drama societies based on scriptures etc., being transformative works, would be entitled to copyright protection - being original works of the Authors themselves. Thus, there can be no objection in the actual reproduction of the text of Shrimad Bhagavad Gita or similarly other spiritual books. However, the manner in which the same is interpreted by different gurus and spiritual teachers being varied in nature, copyright would vest in respect of the original parts of the literary works which preach, teach or explain the scripture.

42. A perusal of the record would show that the books being made available by the Defendants 1 to 14 are complete reproductions of the works of the Plaintiff, which were authored by Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada, 'Srila Prabhupada'. These are not mere reproductions of the original scriptures as it is, i.e., the shlokas but their अनुवाद (Anuvaad) and तात्पर्य (Tatparya), summary, introduction, preface, cover etc., have all been reproduced. Some of the images showing the extent of piracy by the Dhṛtarāṣṭra said: O Sañjaya, after my sons and the sons of Pāṇḍu assembled in the place of pilgrimage at Kurukṣetra, desiring to fight, what did they do?

PURPORT Bhagavad-gītā is the widely read theistic science summarized in the Gītā-māhātmya (Glorification of the Gītā). There it says that one should read Bhagavad-gītā very scrutinizingly with the help of a person who is a devotee of Śrī Kṛṣṇa and try to understand it without personally motivated interpretations. The example of clear understanding is there in the Bhagavad-gītā itself, in the way the teaching is understood by Arjuna, who heard the Gītā directly from the Lord. If someone is fortunate enough to understand the Bhagavad-gītā in that line of disciplic succession, without motivated interpretation, then he surpasses all studies of Vedic wisdom, and all scriptures of the world. One will find in the Bhagavad-gītā all that is contained in other scriptures, but the reader will also find things which are not to be found elsewhere. That is the specific standard of the Gītā. It is the perfect

Plaintiff - Trust.

44. Under these circumstances, this Court is of the opinion that the Plaintiff has made out a prima facie case for grant of an ex parte ad interim injunction. The balance of convenience lies in favour of the Plaintiff and irreparable injury would be caused to the Plaintiff if the interim injunction is not granted.

45. Accordingly, the following directions are issue:

i) Defendant Nos.1 to 14 shall stand restrained in any manner from printing, reproducing, communicating, disseminating any part of the Plaintiff's works as contained in Annexure – A, to the public either in print form or in audio-visual form or in electronic form including through websites, mobile applications, weblinks, Instagram posts or any other posts on the social media as would result in the infringement of Plaintiff's copyright.

ii) The Defendant Nos.15 and 16 shall take down the infringing mobile applications from their respective platforms. For the said purpose, the links may be communicated to the Defendant Nos. 15 and 16.

iii) Insofar as the Defendant No.17 - Godaddy.com LLC is concerned, the said DNR shall immediately block and suspend the domain name/website 'www.bhagavatam.in'.

iv) In addition, Defendant Nos.15 to 17 shall communicate to the Plaintiff the details of the persons/individuals/entities who may be running these accounts/mobile applications/websites including the details relating to credit card payments, phone

v) Defendant No.18 to 26 are directed to block access to the above mentioned infringing websites/other platforms.

vi) Defendant Nos.27 and 28 are directed to issue blocking orders in respect of all the infringing links/URLs/websites.

46. The original books produced by the ld. Counsel for the Plaintiff shall be placed in a trunk and be preserved in the Registry of this Court.

47. Compliance of Order XXXIX Rule 3 is permitted to be carried out within one week through e-mail to all the Defendants.
